

Enriching the Role and Skills of Dispensing Pharmacists for a Better Patient Outcomes in Sri Lankan Hospitals

Date: Friday 16th August 2019

Time: 10 - 12 noon

Venue: New Building Lecture Hall, Department of Pharmacy, Faculty of Allied Health Sciences, University of Peradeniya

Target Audience:

Senior Dispensary pharmacists and or clinical/ ward/ clinic based pharmacist
(Particularly those able to share their experiences and teach others)
Chief Pharmacists may attend but are not all expected to participate/ role play

Learning Objective:

At the end of the 2 hour workshop attendees will have:

1. Participated and observed medication history questioning of a patient on receipt of a prescription in pharmacy
2. Worked through a number of cases and refreshed key principles around prescription review to ensure improve safety and efficacy prior to dispensing medications
3. Participated and reviewed in role plays with discussions with medical staff clarifying prescriptions
4. Participated and observed scenarios of counseling patients about their new or ongoing medications

Department of Pharmacy, Faculty of Allied Health Sciences, University of Peradeniya & CASPPER

Organized and Funded by:

The Department of Pharmacy, Faculty of Allied Health Sciences, University of Peradeniya & CASPPER

Registration: Free and limited (On invitation only) Contact: 081 - 2065792

